

UPDATED VLN INFORMATION

There are some important changes this year:

1. UBC's new rule: If students wish to use a Distributed Learning course in the calculation of their UBC admission average, the course must be 100% complete by February 1, 2014. All other courses needed as a prerequisite for entrance to UBC must be completed by June 2, 2014. <http://you.ubc.ca/admissions/canadian-highschools/bc-yukon/>
2. All other universities: students have until June 2, 2014 to complete their VLN course but they must have at least 50% of their course work completed and one exam written by April 1, 2014 in order for VLN to report the interim marks to the Ministry of Education.
